

Student Songwriting Contest

The Western Region Chapter

American Music Therapy Association for Students

Theme: “Songs of Empowerment: Empowering a client by instilling hope and confidence through music itself”

Entries must be an original composition and include music notation and a recording. Electronic submissions must include a PDF of the music notation and an mp3 of the recording and can be emailed to: conference1@wramta.org. There is no limit to the number of songs someone can submit. To submit a song, one must be a student or intern in the Western region, as well as a current AMTA member.

Winner will receive a voucher worth $90 toward AMTA membership!

Winner will be announced at the WRAMTA conference where the winning song may be performed. Songs will be judged on the following criteria: melody, rhythm, lyrics, harmony, and form.

Submissions due March 15, 2014
